Double Patenting

1. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

2. Claims 29-60 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 5-9 of U.S. Patent No. 6402614 or over claims 1-30 of U.S. Patent No. 6607439 or over claims 1-6 of 6024640 or over claims 1-13 of U.S. Patent No. 5871398. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because it would have been obvious to claim the method, system or device/apparatus broader in order to obtain the most commercially viable form of invention or in order to obtain the broadest protection for invention thereby securing commercial viability. Further it would have been obvious to claim a storage medium storing the instructions for performing the 'protected' method so as to protect the form of invention of the media (chip, disk, card, etc.) that stores the program for conducting the method within a processing device.
